1. The Specialist Prosecutor's Office ('SPO') notes that the KRASNIQI Defence does not object to the admission of the final page of the Proposed Evidence,¹ which cross-references the deleted files recovered from the KRASNIQI workstation (as found in Admitted Item 124) with items admitted in these proceedings.² However, this selective approach would obfuscate the relevance of the Proposed Evidence as a whole, which also identifies the files retrieved from the KRASNIQI workstation, and admitted in these proceedings, that were not deleted.³

2. As such, while the SPO does not object to the removal of the small number of entries in the Proposed Evidence that relate to files not admitted in these proceedings,⁴ the remainder of the Proposed Evidence as a whole is necessary to fully inform the Parties' submissions on Defence exhibits concerning items seized from the KRASNIQI workstation, and the Panel's assessment thereof.⁵

3. For the foregoing reasons, and those articulated in the Request, the Panel should permit the SPO to tender and admit the Proposed Evidence in its entirety.
