603	TBD	065496-01	Kohavision TV "Interaktiv" news program reporting on a Kosovo Assembly's debate on the KLA values following the sentencing of the "Drenica group." The report includes reactions from war veterans, including Hysni NGUCATI, "the newly elected leader of post war associations." The Assembly failed to adopt a draft resolution on the "Values of the KLA" due to lack of quorum. The session concluded with a "tense exchange" between deputies Glauk KONJUFCA (representing the Vetevendosje party) and Nuredin LUSHTAKU (representing the PDK party). While KONJUFCA was quoting a statement issued by Sami LUSHTAKU, one of the individuals sentenced in the "Drenica case" and who is alleged to have criticized his own party, the PDK for contributing to his sentencing, KONJUFCA was approached in the stand by Nuredin LUSHTAKU, which almost ended up in a physical confrontation. The report also contains fragments of various speeches held by the deputies, various exchanges between them as well as various counter accusations as to who voted in favour and who against the establishment of the Specialist Court (KSC & SPO). Parliament Chairman Kadri VESELI stated that he voted for the establishment of the Specialist Court. "Even today I would vote for the establishment of the court, because I am convinced that I would have damaged the country, the Republic of Kosovo, and I would have caused trouble for my children (if I didn't vote)," VESELI said. Fatmir LIMAJ states that "this Assembly session is only damaging and it is not helping the people for whom this session is being held for. We all know that this session has come very late in time" and this session represent interference with the justice system." The news bulleting also contains a report on the EU condemnation of the Assembly session which is considered interference with the justice system as well as a report on Latif GASHI, who was released from prison. GASHI was initially sentenced to six years as part of the "Llap group."
