Prosecution notification regarding F00524

Specialist Prosecutor's Office

Kimberly P. West

Duty Counsel for Isni Kilaj

Iain Edwards

1. In the Continued Detention Reasons,¹ the Single Judge set a schedule for the filing of submissions for further review of Kilaj's detention. In the event the Defence did not file submissions by 5 December 2023, the SPO was ordered to file submissions by 11 December 2023. The Defence filed its submissions on 7 December 2023, and requested a retroactive extension of the time limit for doing so.² The Specialist Prosecutor's Office ('SPO') hereby notifies the Single Judge that, in the interest of efficiency and pursuant to inter partes agreement, it intends to file one consolidated submission within the timeline set out in Rule 76 to respond to the Defence Submissions,³ rather than also making a separate filing on 11 December 2023, and simultaneously will not object to the Defence Submissions on the basis of timeliness.⁴

2. This filing is submitted as confidential in accordance with Rule 82(4), but the SPO does not object to its reclassification as public.
