TRIAL PANEL II of the Kosovo Specialist Chambers (“Panel”), pursuant to Article 41(2), (6), (10), and (12) of Law No. 05/L-053 on Specialist Chambers and Specialist Prosecutor’s Office (“Law”) and Rules 56(2) and 57(2) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence Before the Kosovo Specialist Chambers (“Rules”), hereby renders this decision.

I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

1. The procedural background concerning the periodic review of the detention of Hashim Thaçi (“Mr Thaçi”) has been set out extensively in previous decisions. Relevant events since the last periodic review (“Eleventh Decision on Detention”)¹ include the following.
2. On 24 November 2023, the Specialist Prosecutor’s Office (“SPO”) filed its submissions on the review of Mr Thaçi’s detention (“SPO Submissions”).²
3. The Defence for Mr Thaçi did not respond to the SPO Submissions.
4. The trial against Mr Thaçi and his co-accused continues to progress.

II. SUBMISSIONS

5. The SPO submits that Mr Thaçi’s detention continues to be justified.³ According to the SPO, since the last decision on review of Mr Thaçi’s detention, there has been no material change in circumstances that warrant a different conclusion.⁴ The SPO avers that no conditions short of detention in the detention facility would be sufficient to minimise the risks enumerated under Article 41,⁵ and that detention remains proportional.⁶

III. APPLICABLE LAW

6. The law applicable to deciding the present matter is set out primarily in Article 41 and Rules 56 and 57, and has been laid out extensively in earlier decisions.⁷ The Panel will apply these standards to the present decision.

IV. DISCUSSION

7. The purpose of reviewing detention every two months pursuant to Article 41(10) is for the Panel to determine whether the reasons for detention on remand still exist.⁸ A change in circumstances, while not determinative, shall be taken into consideration if raised before the relevant panel or proprio motu.⁹ In the present review, the SPO asserts that no change in circumstances has occurred which would support interim release from detention.¹⁰ Nevertheless, the Panel will proceed to review the factors under Article 41(6) to satisfy itself that the circumstances underpinning Mr Thaçi's detention continue to exist, justifying the continued detention of Mr Thaçi.

A. ARTICLE 41 CRITERIA

1. Grounded Suspicion

8. The SPO submits that there remains a grounded suspicion that Mr Thaçi has committed a crime within the jurisdiction of the Specialist Chambers (“SC”).¹¹

9. Regarding the threshold for continued detention, Article 41(6)(a) requires a grounded suspicion that the detained person has committed a crime within the jurisdiction of the SC. This is a condition sine qua non for the validity of the detained person’s continued detention.¹²

10. The Panel notes that the Pre-Trial Judge determined that, pursuant to Article 39(2), there was a well-grounded suspicion that Mr Thaçi is criminally liable for a number of crimes against humanity (persecution, imprisonment, other inhumane acts, torture, murder and enforced disappearance) and war crimes (arbitrary detention, cruel treatment, torture and murder) under Articles 13, 14(1)(c) and 16(1)(a).¹³ Moreover, the Pre-Trial Judge also found that a well-grounded suspicion was established with regard to new charges brought by the SPO against Mr Thaçi.¹⁴ These findings were made on the basis of a standard

A confidential redacted version was filed on 19 November 2020, F00026/CONF/RED. A public redacted version was filed on 30 November 2020, F00026/RED. The Specialist Prosecutor submitted the confirmed indictment in F00034, Specialist Prosecutor, Submission of Confirmed Indictment and Related Requests, 30 October 2020, confidential, with Annex 1, strictly confidential and ex parte, and Annexes 2-3, confidential; F00045/A03, Specialist Prosecutor, Further Redacted Indictment, 4 November 2020; F00134, Specialist Prosecutor, Lesser Redacted Version of Redacted Indictment, KSC-BC-2020-06/F00045/A02, 4 November 2020, 11 December 2020, confidential. A further corrected confirmed indictment was submitted on 3 September 2021, strictly confidential and ex parte (F00455/A01), with confidential redacted (F00455/CONF/RED/A01) and public redacted (F00455/RED/A01) versions. On 17 January 2022, the Specialist Prosecutor submitted a confidential, corrected, and lesser redacted version of the confirmed Indictment, F00647/A01.

¹⁴ F00777, Pre-Trial Judge, Decision on the Confirmation of Amendments to the Indictment, 22 April 2022, strictly confidential and ex parte, para. 183. A confidential redacted version, F00777/CONF/RED, a public redacted version, F00777/RED, and a confidential lesser redacted version, F00777/CONF/RED2, were filed on 22 April 2022, 6 May 2022 and 16 May 2022, respectively. The requested amendments are

exceeding the grounded suspicion threshold required for the purposes of Article 41(6)(a).¹⁵

11. Absent any new material circumstances affecting the above findings, the Panel finds that there continues to be a grounded suspicion that Mr Thaçi has committed crimes within the subject-matter jurisdiction of the SC for the purposes of Article 41(6)(a) and (10).

2. Necessity of Detention

12. With respect to the grounds for continued detention, Article 41(6)(b) sets out three alternative bases (risks) on which detention may be found to be necessary: (i) risk of flight; (ii) risk of obstruction of the proceedings; or (iii) risk of the further commission of crimes.¹⁶ Detention shall be maintained if there are articulable grounds to believe that one or more of these risks will materialise.¹⁷ “Articulable” in this context means specified in detail by reference to the relevant information or evidence.¹⁸ In determining whether any of the grounds under Article 41(6)(b)

A confirmed amended indictment was then filed by the SPO on 29 April 2022 (“Confirmed Indictment”), strictly confidential and ex parte (F00789/A01), with confidential redacted (F00789/A02) and public redacted (F00789/A05) versions. A further confidential amended Confirmed Indictment was filed on 30 September 2022, (F00999/A01) and public redacted version (F00999/A03). A public lesser redacted version of the Confirmed Indictment was filed on 15 February 2023 (F01296/A03) and on 27 February 2023 (F01323/A01).

allowing for a person's detention exist, the standard to be applied is less than certainty, but more than a mere possibility of a risk materialising.¹⁹

(a) Risk of Flight

13. The SPO asserts that Mr Thaçi's knowledge and understanding of the charges and the evidence against him has increased pursuant to recent disclosures and the ongoing trial.²⁰ The SPO alleges that these circumstances heighten Mr Thaçi's motivation to flee, creating a sufficiently real possibility that he will abscond.²¹

14. The Panel has examined the SPO's arguments in light of the current stage of the proceedings, and while the risk of flight can never be completely ruled out, it reaffirms that it does not find any additional factor sufficiently compelling to persuade the Panel to change its previous finding regarding any risk of flight.

15. The SPO argues that, while the Panel has previously credited Mr Thaçi with cooperation with relevant authorities associated with his detention, this is clearly not the current state of affairs.²² The Panel has previously determined that Mr Thaçi has cooperated with relevant authorities associated with his detention and transfer.²³ The fact that recent occurrences may undermine or undo this finding would not bolster the suggestion that the risk of flight in respect of Mr Thaçi is therefore increased.

16. The Panel finds the SPO's general argument that the risk of flight increases pursuant to the Accused's increased knowledge of the case and the evidence against him is unpersuasive. The Panel considers that the SPO has failed to establish its claim of a “sufficiently real possibility” that the Accused will abscond if released based on the stage of the proceedings.²⁴

17. The Panel therefore finds that Mr Thaçi’s continued detention is not justified at this time based on the risk of flight pursuant to Article 41(6)(b)(i).

(b) Risk of Obstructing the Progress of SC Proceedings

18. With reference to this Panel’s previous findings, the SPO submits that Mr Thaçi continues to present a risk of obstructing the proceedings.²⁵ The SPO notes that this Panel has previously determined that Mr Thaçi has (i) the interest and ability to interfere with the proceedings; (ii) attempted to undermine the KSC and offered benefits to persons summoned by the SPO; (iii) a position of influence in Kosovo which could allow him to elicit the support of sympathisers; and (iv) given the ongoing trial, increased knowledge of the evidence underpinning the serious charges against him.²⁶ The SPO notes that a general climate of witness interference persists in Kosovo regarding this case and others before the SC,²⁷ which, as held by the Court of Appeals, is a relevant contextual consideration.²⁸ The SPO notes that Mr Thaçi has received, and will continue to receive, information concerning the witnesses that the SPO intends to call.²⁹ The SPO submits that the risk of obstruction increases as the remaining delayed disclosure witnesses have their identities lifted in the course of trial.³⁰ According to the SPO, this continues to amplify the risk of sensitive information pertaining to witnesses becoming known to members of the public before the witnesses in question testify.³¹

19. The SPO asserts that Mr Thaçi has recently demonstrated these risks by: (i) revealing the identities of protected witnesses to persons visiting the Detention Centre;³² (ii) disseminating the content of confidential testimony to persons visiting the Detention Centre;³³ (iii) issuing instructions on how witnesses should testify from the Detention Centre;³⁴ (iv) planning how to approach witnesses from the Detention Centre;³⁵ and (v) organising commentary on witness testimony in the media from the Detention Centre.³⁶

20. As noted by the SPO,³⁷ the Panel recalls that it has already determined that Mr Thaçi has: (i) the interest and ability to interfere with the proceedings; (ii) attempted to undermine the SC and offered benefits to persons summoned by the SPO; (iii) a position of influence in Kosovo which could allow him to elicit the support of sympathisers; and (iv) given the ongoing trial, increased knowledge of the evidence underpinning the serious charges against him.³⁸ The Panel maintains this view given that no change in circumstances has occurred which would support a different finding.

21. In light of the ongoing trial proceedings, the names and personal details of certain highly sensitive SPO witnesses have now, and will continue to be disclosed to the Thaçi Defence,³⁹ and will therefore become known to a broader range of people, including to Mr Thaçi. This, in turn, increases the risk of sensitive information pertaining to witnesses becoming known to members of the public before the witnesses in question give evidence. In this context, the release of an accused with sensitive information in his possession would not be conducive to the effective protection of witnesses who have yet to testify.

22. The Panel notes that the SPO makes a new allegation based on the same evidence that was before the Panel prior to its recent decision modifying the restrictions on Mr Thaçi's visits and communications ("Decision on Detention Conditions").⁴⁰ That is, that Mr Thaçi instructed visitors to organise commentary on witness testimony in the media.⁴¹ However, without prejudice to the question of the veracity of this allegation, the Panel observes that the SPO has not indicated how this would amount to "unlawful conduct" or to conduct that would place the safety of the relevant witness at risk.⁴²

23. Regarding the other violations allegedly committed by Mr Thaçi in the Detention Centre recited above,⁴³ the Panel recalls its findings in the Decision on Detention Conditions that it appears that Mr Thaçi provided visitors with information elicited during the testimony of a protected witnesses.⁴⁴ Moreover, the record suggests that he passed on to an unprivileged visitor instructions intended for a future SPO witness regarding the form and content of that witness's upcoming testimony.⁴⁵ Such conduct supports and reinforces the Panel's finding that the Accused's release would create a risk of obstruction with the progress of SC proceedings.

24. Moreover, such a risk exists within a persistent climate of intimidation of witnesses and interference with criminal proceedings against former KLA members in Kosovo which protective measures alone cannot overcome.⁴⁶

25. Accordingly, the Panel concludes that the risk that Mr Thaçi will obstruct the progress of SC proceedings continues to exist.

(c) Risk of Committing Further Crimes

26. The SPO refers to the Panel's findings in its Eleventh Decision on Detention, and submits that Mr Thaçi continues to present a risk of committing further crimes.⁴⁷ Additionally, the SPO asserts that those circumstances relevant to assessing the risk of obstructing the progress of SC proceedings, as provided above,⁴⁸ are equally applicable in this context, and accordingly incorporates them.⁴⁹

27. The Panel recalls its finding in the Eleventh Decision on Detention that the risk of Mr Thaçi committing further crimes continues to exist.⁵⁰ The Panel finds that the same factors that were taken into account in relation to the risk of obstruction are relevant to the analysis of the risk of Mr Thaçi committing further crimes.⁵¹ The Panel also notes that no new circumstances have arisen since the last detention review⁵² that would justify a different finding in respect of this matter.

⁴⁶ Eleventh Decision on Detention, para. 21. See also KSC-BC-2020-05, F00494/RED, Trial Panel, Trial Judgment, 19 January 2023, para. 57. A corrected version was filed on 8 June 2023, F00494/RED3/COR.

⁵² SPO Submissions, paras 1, 6.

28. The Panel highlights the fact that the trial in this case is ongoing, that the identities of sensitive witnesses have been disclosed to Mr Thaçi, and that any risk of the further commission of crimes must be avoided.

29. The Panel considers that, taking all factors together, there continues to be a risk that Mr Thaçi will commit further crimes as set out in Article 41(6)(b)(iii).

3. Conclusion

30. The Panel concludes that at this time there continues to be insufficient information before it justifying a finding that Mr Thaçi may abscond from justice. However, the Panel is satisfied, based on the relevant standard, that there is a sufficient risk that Mr Thaçi will obstruct the progress of SC proceedings and that he will commit further crimes against those perceived as being opposed to the KLA, including witnesses who have provided or could provide evidence in the case and/or are due to appear before the SC. The Panel will assess below whether these risks can be adequately addressed by any conditions for his release.

B. MEASURES ALTERNATIVE TO DETENTION

31. Referencing this Panel's previous findings, the SPO submits that: (i) the relevant risks can only be effectively managed at the detention facility;⁵³ (ii) none of the proposed conditions, nor any additional measures foreseen in Article 41(12) could sufficiently mitigate the existing risks;⁵⁴ (iii) it is only through the communication monitoring framework applicable at the detention facility that Mr Thaçi's communications can be restricted in a manner that would sufficiently mitigate the risks of obstruction and commission of further crimes;⁵⁵ (iv) nothing has occurred since the Eleventh Decision warranting a different assessment on conditions, either generally or for a discrete period of time;⁵⁶ and (v) Mr Thaçi's conduct now represents such an extraordinarily heightened risk that even the standard communications restrictions and monitoring of the Detention Centre are insufficient.⁵⁷ Therefore, in light of the ongoing disclosure of sensitive witness information associated with current trial proceedings, the underlying risks are higher than ever.⁵⁸

32. When deciding whether a person should be released or detained, the Panel must consider alternative measures to prevent the risks provided in Article 41(6)(b).⁵⁹ Article 41(12) sets out a number of options to be considered in order to ensure the accused's presence at trial, to prevent reoffending and to ensure successful conduct of proceedings. In this respect, the Panel recalls that detention should only be continued if there are no alternative, more lenient measures reasonably available that could sufficiently mitigate the risks set out in Article 41(6)(b).⁶⁰ The Panel must therefore consider all reasonable alternative measures that could be imposed, not only those raised by the Parties.⁶¹

33. Regarding the risks of obstructing the progress of SC proceedings and committing further crimes, the Panel finds that none of the formerly proposed conditions, nor any additional measures foreseen in Article 41(12), could sufficiently mitigate the existing risks.⁶² Furthermore, the Panel finds that the measures in place at the detention facility, viewed as a whole, provide robust assurances against unmonitored visits and communications with family members and pre-approved visitors with a view to minimising the risks of obstruction and commission of further crimes.⁶³ Moreover, they offer a controlled environment where a potential breach of confidentiality could be more easily identified and/or prevented.⁶⁴

34. The Panel further maintains that it is only through the communication monitoring framework provided at the detention facility, including those measures recently ordered by the Panel,⁶⁵ that Mr Thaçi's communications can be restricted in a manner that would sufficiently mitigate the risks of obstruction and commission of further crimes.⁶⁶

35. In light of the foregoing, the Panel finds that the risks of obstructing the proceedings and committing further offences can only be effectively managed at the detention facility. In these circumstances, the Panel finds that Mr Thaçi's continued detention is necessary in order to avert the risks in Article 41(6)(b)(ii) and (iii).

C. REASONABLENESS OF DETENTION

36. The SPO submits that Mr Thaçi's detention remains proportional, citing this Panel's previous findings, and noting that trial progress continues to be made.⁶⁷

⁶² Eleventh Decision on Detention, para. 30.

⁶³ Eleventh Decision on Detention, para. 30.

⁶⁵ See Decision on Detention Conditions, para. 84.

⁶⁶ Eleventh Decision on Detention, para. 31.

⁶⁷ SPO Submissions, para. 28 (citing Eleventh Decision on Detention, para. 35).

37. The Panel recalls that the reasonableness of an accused's continued detention must be assessed on the facts of each case and according to its special features.⁶⁸ The special features in this case include: (i) Mr Thaçi's influence and authority; (ii) his knowledge of the charges and the evidence against him, and a possibly lengthy prison sentence; (iii) the risk that Mr Thaçi would obstruct SC proceedings; (iv) the risk of committing, instigating, or assisting further crimes; (v) the fact that restrictive measures on release are not sufficient to mitigate risks; (vi) the gravity and the complexity of the charges against Mr Thaçi; and (vii) the fact that the trial is now underway, demonstrating reasonable progression of proceedings.⁶⁹

38. In light of the circumstances discussed above, and the fact that risks of obstructing the proceedings and of committing further crimes continue to exist – neither of which can be sufficiently mitigated by the application of reasonable alternative measures – the Panel finds that Mr Thaçi's detention for a further two months is necessary and reasonable under the specific circumstances of the case.

39. The Panel notes, however, that Mr Thaçi has already been in detention for a significant period of time, and the trial in this case is likely to be lengthy. As the Panel previously indicated, this will require the Panel as well as all Parties to be particularly mindful of the need to ensure that the trial proceeds as expeditiously as possible. The Panel will continue to monitor at every stage in these proceedings whether continued detention is necessary and reasonable.

VI. DISPOSITION

40. For the above-mentioned reasons, the Panel hereby:

- (a) ORDERS Mr Thaçi's continued detention; and
- (b) ORDERS the SPO to file submissions on the next review of Mr Thaçi's detention by no later than Monday, 29 January 2024 at 16:00, with the response and reply following the timeline set out in Rule 76.
