1. Pursuant to Rule 82(1) and (5) of the Rules,¹ the Specialist Prosecutor's Office ('SPO') requests² authorisation for the *Thaçi et al.*³ Panel, Parties, and Victims' Counsel to access and use, on a confidential basis, the confidential versions of the Trial Judgment⁴ and Appeal Judgment⁵ in the Mustafa case.⁶ There is a specific, legitimate forensic purpose for the request, which, if granted, would not impact applicable protective measures, and indeed, may ultimately facilitate fair and expeditious proceedings in *Thaçi et al.*⁷

2. The Thaçi et al. Accused are charged with, inter alia, the same crimes that are the subject of the Judgments.⁸ Pursuant to Rule 157(2), the Thaçi et al. Parties are entitled to seek judicial notice of adjudicated facts from the Judgments. However, in the public redacted versions of the Judgements, there are redactions, including to relevant

⁷ Other Panels have considered requests for access under Rule 82(1) and (5), and considered whether adequate justification for access was provided, balancing all relevant interests. See, for example, Public Redacted Version of Decision on Request for Access to Confidential and Ex Parte Material, KSC-BC-20201-08/RAC001/F00005/RED, 13 April 2022, paras 8, 13, 16-17. *See also Specialist Prosecutor v. judicial findings.⁹ In order to properly assess whether to make – and, as appropriate, litigate and decide – any requests for judicial notice of adjudicated facts arising from the Judgments, the Thaçi et al. Panel, Parties, and Victims' Counsel should be able to refer to and use the confidential versions of the Judgments.

3. Finally, granting this request would not have any impact on applicable protective measures, which shall continue to have effect in *Thaçi et al.*¹⁰ Any reference to or use of confidential portions of the Judgments would be on a confidential basis. Moreover, pursuant to, as appropriate, Rules 81(1)(b), 102, and 103, evidence cited and discussed in the Judgments has already been disclosed in Thaçi et al.

4. For the foregoing reasons, this request should be granted.
